

Peace and Harmony in Hungary
Concordance
and Personal Manifestation Guides for Infinity members for November 3, 2006

In preparation for the Concordance on November 3rd please read each of these personal visions, connect in mind and spirit with the individual and her or his respective life, and see/feel the following as present realities. Remember, we are already connected, so there is no struggle in making this already-present connection obvious to our conscious awareness. It is already there...feel it!

The first time you read these, just allow yourself to be inspired by the life of someone you know but may not remember. Without judgment, openly and lovingly accept these as the person's heart desire. Then re-read knowing that on Friday at the appointed time we will be collectively manifesting these things for each individual. Here, in a very real sense, you are traveling to the future to enact our collective manifestations. See/feel these visions becoming manifest as a result of our shared visioning for each other on Friday. Feel deep fulfillment and satisfaction in yourself for having been such a valuable facilitator (co-creator) in someone else's life. Also feel empathically fulfilled, content and appreciative, as if you could fit yourself inside the others' feelings, knowing that these desires and visions are manifesting this very moment.

When you come across your own Personal Manifestation Guide, smile at it knowing that the amplifying power of the group is co-creating it for you. You've already set your intention; there is nothing to do now but allow it to manifest. Feel gracious and deserving of receiving, then release it to this powerful group of co-creating Infinity members and know. As I mention in the Inevitability of Abundance article (http://www.infinityaffinity.org/inevitability_of_abundance.htm):

"Faith is the absence of disbelief"

If you don't disbelieve in the power of our co-creative capacities, what we desire to manifest will be so. Your past disbelief was your own nemesis. Your task now is to appreciate your manifestations' realization and allow the joyous action that will inspire you on a moment-by-moment basis as they unfold gracefully. As they do, please report back to me so that I may share them with the group.

On Friday we will go over each Personal Manifestation Guide in the privacy of our own hearts and minds, and these now familiar personal manifestations will be launched into the cosmic field for immediate manifestation. The Friday Concordance will be both closed-eye and open-eye so that we may look upon the Personal Manifestation Guides below to give them added life. It will be best to join our TeleConcordance on the phone, but if you cannot call the number from wherever you are, no worries. Just tune in to the Vibe we are creating to orchestrate these manifestations.

As the days and weeks and months go by after this Concordance, someone may come to mind that you have helped manifest their vision. Allow the image or vision to float freely in you, giving thanks and appreciation for the abundance and fulfillment we enjoy in our connection.

I am honored to be party to such powerful group manifestors/co-creators!

All my best,
Joseph R. Giove, aka Flesymi

PS. I am including the brief notes to me (and locales if I have them) that some people wrote as this gives additional details of the people you are manifesting for.

Peace and Harmony in Hungary Concordance

The peace and harmony meditation that we will perform on November 3rd, prior to the personal manifestations below, will be directed toward the country of Hungary, at the request of Infinity member Kati D. Please take a moment to locate Hungary on the globe; have its location in mind as we empower a vision of harmony and peace.

Hungary has fallen to political and social unrest. As in most countries today, there are those in power that would work for their own gain, whether it is financial, religious or political, rather than for the collective good. This pattern is waning as new energies, balanced in their feminine/masculine aspects, inform all people from within. Our task as Gaia Vision Holders is to maintain our thoughts and feelings in the pattern that is emerging until such time as it is apparent to everyone else. This is the same way you go about manifesting a job or house...believe it 'till you see it. Only in our work we do it together. And it won't stop on November 3rd. With the millions of moments you have to spare in your mind over the next few months, please spare a few deep moments in love and harmony for Hungary and its beautiful people.

Following is the Concordance that Kati D. and I developed so that we can help co-create peace and harmony in Hungary. Thank you so much Kati for trusting us with your compassion and vision.

First, from Kati:

“I can't express how utterly honoured I feel. The sympathy and good will that I'm receiving feels something out of this world! I love and appreciate meeting new people but in public I'm a shy person and it tests my courage to be heard and listened to this way but it's exhilarating beyond belief!”

We see politicians that are able to put the interest of the Hungary before their self-interests and desire to win over the opposition.

We see opposing parties start meaningful conversations about resolving conflict and separation that will lead to social harmony.

We see ordinary people rising up and becoming active to defend their G-d-given rights of liberty, harmony and right-livelihood, empowered by the truth of their collective strength to abolish domination, manipulation and politics that disrupt harmony in families, friendships, communities and work places.

We see trust, reconciliation and an indelible spirit of cooperation taking over from suspicion and animosity in all the communities big and small.

We see self-empowered, intelligent people rebuilding the capitol in integrity, a deep moral sense and with a new government that has the welfare of its people as its utmost concern, allowing karmic forces to render disharmonious actions and people to their fair state.

We see people accepting the sacrifices and challenges of the reforms that are necessary to get our country back on track.

We see people coping in a spirit of abundance and foresight with the economic difficulties that the reforms may bring.

We see the streets of Budapest and other towns full of happy tourists, and people that feel safe and secure.

We see our country regaining the respect of the world and becoming the peaceful heaven that it used to be.

We see all citizens free from fear, hate, anger and judgment, full of calm, peace, love and radiating out for all to experience.

Hiya Flesymi,

This is PMG for:

1. I am enjoying the beauty of the new land i have bought. It is in the Spanish Pyrenees, the nearest town is a lot.

It is sheltered, south facing with beautiful views. It is around 3 hectares in size, good for growing vegetables and herbs, and there is a spring on the land.

I will build a round, wooden structure to live in this spring.

I feel very connected with the spirits of this land and give gratitude to the spirit of the nearby mountain that guided me here.

I feel really big and at the same time really, really small, it is a wholesome, connected feeling.

2. I am happy that someone wants to buy my land in southern Catalunya. They have offered me 160,000€, which I have accepted gratefully.

I feel relieved, grateful to all that truly is, and free to follow my dreams, visions for the future.

3. I am really pleased that my bank account has over £5,000 in it and is growing weekly. Every week I am able to deposit more money.

Much love and ever new joy to you all.

"Uplifting humanity through individuals -- effortlessly!"

James A., Springfield, Massachusetts, USA.

Dear InfinityAffinity Community:

Thank you for this opportunity to co-create together at this auspicious time in the now! I live in Springfield, Massachusetts, USA.

Here are my 3 Manifestations:

(1) I AM creatively co-creating financial abundance equal to or greater than 3 million US dollars within the next 6 months which is being used for up to or more than 12 philanthropic projects I AM affiliated with while continuing to travel the world assisting others in co-creating their dreams for them(our)selves. I see, feel and hear the joy, love and appreciation from those people stewarding their respective projects as well as seeing, feeling and hearing the same from those people receiving the 'fruits' harvested from the accomplishments of set goals related to these respective projects.

I AM excited, motivated, energized, filled with joy and infinite gratitude for utilizing this Divine financial abundance that is readily available and shared in a heart-felt, loving way with communities in the United States, Brazil, Peru, Costa Rica, Africa, Europe and anywhere else it is needed to co-create self-sustainability and healing for humanity and mother earth in a harmonious and balanced way. I AM in love traveling to all these places and meeting new people experiencing the mutually beneficial relationships created through these heart-felt connections. It is especially peaceful to feel the privacy of 'BE'-ing in a beautiful home and at home everywhere I go!

*I CO-CREATE THIS OR SOMETHING BETTER
WITHOUT ATTACHMENTS OR EXPECTATIONS!*

(2) I AM creatively sharing my life of travel, outdoor adventure and living while assisting others in meeting their life goals and dreams with my Divine twin flame. Its a feeling of truth, bliss, Divine perfection, ease and ecstatic wonderment to successfully and respectfully co-create this inter-dependence together through sharing infinite, unconditional love, happiness, trust and joy amongst ourselves and ALL THAT IS....ALL-WAYS.

The level of joy, ease and naturalness we feel being with one another as we play and co-create, co-create and play infinitely magnifies exponentially to ALL THAT IS realizing Heaven On Earth in every moment. It is with infinite gratitude, trust and abundance that we are gifted all we require to maintain and continue these manifestations.

*I CO-CREATE THIS OR SOMETHING BETTER
WITHOUT ANY ATTACHMENTS OR EXPECTATIONS!*

(3) My body, mind, Spirit and emotions are in perfect health, balance and harmony with my Divine Soul template allowing a resonant vibration of ascended mastery to effortlessly, efficiently and effectively flow to me and through me while holding space for and assisting others in raising their vibration to the Christ Consciousness levels of evolution. This is happening in perfect Divine timing for my Soul contract with infinite integrity, gratitude, reverence, purity and humility.

The feelings of unconditional love, truth, freedom, bliss, ecstasy, rapture, omnipotence and ONE-NESS with ALL THAT IS are indescribable within the present context. Therefore, I AM THAT I AM and this is true completion and initiation in every moment as the God-Self THAT I AM Divinely facilitates planetary and interplanetary ascension with Divine precision.

*I CO-CREATE THIS OR SOMETHING BETTER (?)
WITHOUT ATTACHMENTS OR EXPECTATIONS!*

SO BE IT, SO IT IS and IT IS SO!

INFINITE BLESSINGS AND INFINITE GRATITUDE TO AND FOR ALL THAT IS!

PEACE IS ON EARTH NOW!

Natalia C., Atlanta, GA

I feel happy and I am filled with excitement as I am enjoying my new job which I have started right after Thanksgiving. I am really giving thanks for my new job as it is everything I ever wanted. I am using all my talents and skills and have chance to improve them as well. I make three times more money than I used to make at my previous job and work three times less. I travel every month up to 9 days here and overseas. I go to the office while in Atlanta only one or two times a week. I am respected and appreciated by the people who I work with. I meet wonderful like-minded people with whom I share much in common. I make very good and valid social contacts and new friendships come into my life. I feel happy and my life feels full. My social life has completely changed as many new friends came into my life.

My relationship with my romantic partner has moved to a higher level. We have already set up a wedding date and now only working on a little detail about moving in together our pets. My loved one is attentive, gentle, loving and supporting, like he's always been and even more now, since he understands my fears about this transition. With his actions that speak louder than words he helps me to go through the moving in period. We are very, very happy together. Now this expression "when the two become one" is completely understood by both of us.

Peggy P., St. Louis, MO USA

I am grateful that $30,000 is gifted to me for remodeling my downstairs entry, upstairs bedroom, baths and roof replacement and landscaping at my home. This gift makes me aware of the monetary flow in the universe and solidifies my belief in myself and what I choose to do. My heart and mind are eased and joyful that this money comes to me so easily for these projects and that I am able to offer a luxurious and comfortable setting for my guests and me.

I am grateful that my body is toned and ready for 3 days or more of skiing in high altitude. This allows me to ease any concerns I have had in the past about altitude sickness and discomfort from this. My body reacts easily to the increase in altitude and my body adjusts easily to the efforts of alpine skiing for 3 days in the mountains.

I am grateful that my best friend, soul mate, Twin Flame lover and Life Partner have appeared in my life and that a relationship is developing. My soul rejoices that this spirit has now entered my 3rd dimensional life and that we are in a completely healthy relationship.

Thanks Joseph!!!!

The next 30 days...

I am flying high, the investors have committed and by the middle of November, 2006, Bruce has finalized the terms with ease and mutual excitement, my company received the five Million for the "Vibrations" project and I am in the process of assembling and hiring the teams for each division.

I am also glad, the assistant general counsel has issued a letter of determination over jurisdictional issues, which is sufficient to compel the enforcement of both judgments, that are being resolved via an acceptable settlement offer induced by the company chairman of my ex husband with which my ex husband complies.

My mother and I are grateful for John's remarkable skills, and we are so relieved that the title of the residence is back in our name and the fraudsters are made to recompense and kept from repeating such offenses to others.

I am deeply grateful that a long chapter of injustices was corrected and closed, and I am happy to see my mother and daughter be content and at peace.

I am so energized with gratitude for the freedom I now enjoy, of being able to concentrate on the organization, being productive, and being able to give many others an opportunity to work and collaborate within this creative endeavor to benefit children across the globe.

In gratitude and awe of the beauty of Joseph, Elizabeth and everyone...

2. I have a thinner and toned body with a flatter stomach in the next 30 days, and I have lots of energy and vitality, and all my clothes are now loose so I am enjoying shopping for new clothes and enjoying eating the foods i love.

1) To receive the help or wisdom that would restore my health and well-being, where my body is comfortable and pain-free, I am grounded, energy is flowing easily, naturally and uninterrupted along the nervous system and breath is moving easily, rhythmically, deep in the body by November 18, 2006.

I feel easy going, happy, light, relaxed and energetic to pursuing my goals and being who I am.

Within the next 30 days:

I AM laughing with joy at the sales of three of CJ's screenplays and novels that we know will each bring at least one million US dollars to him, and bringing me a commission of 15% that I receive and deposit happily into my new business checking account. I smile broadly as I write the checks to people who I love and pay all my bills. I holler with joy when I get a photograph of my mother with her new car in front of her fixed-up home – all that I helped to pay for as her birthday present, along with a ticket for her to go to Greece!! I AM joyously celebrating while dining at a great seafood restaurant with Gary and Kathleen for the sale of SFT, the animated feature Gary wrote that is going to be perfectly directed by NM with the joyous support of Paramount Studios. The SFT script sells for $1,750,000.00 and Gary is thrilled to hand me 20% of it. Kathleen blesses the project and me and Gary as I agree to sign-on as co-producer. I AM thrilled with having received $50,000.00 in initial funds toward the full setup of my business. I work brilliantly, radiantly, joyously with my network of phenomenal, higher consciousness filmmakers as we lay out the plan and choose the perfect projects that we will be working on with an amazing array of talent, cooperative support, fun, everyone's needs met in this mutually rewarding work. I see us all excitedly anticipating fulfilling our purpose as we move forward daily. I am deeply grateful as I experience moving along this vividly clear path with the A-list and all other people who come forward now to acknowledge, support, and provide funds toward all of this evolving, wonderful work.

Within the next 30 days, I will be driving my new Toyota SLE V6 Convertible:

SLE V6 Convertible in Blizzard Pearl

It is bought and paid for, delivered to me, and comes with $5,000.00 fuel paid in advance, plus a maintenance agreement and full insurance for a five-year period. I am wildly giddy at first, then so calmly happy to drive this car – always safe, and protected – up the California coast or wherever I need or want to go! Everything in it always functions perfectly, and I always arrive at my destination of choice with great joy.

I am able to keep 'Evi' and get her fully cleaned up, maintained, insured, painted and tuned up for my friends or whoever may need a car from time to time.

1. We are magically, divinely receiving no less than one million dollars, depositing these divine dollars into a bank account at a fabulous bank on or before Nov. 30th, easily and effortlessly.

We are in awe and appreciation for the deliciousness of this experience. We are in deep gratitude to ourselves, because this wonderful manifestation is due to our powerful desire and focus. We are feeling great appreciation for ourselves, for the creation process, for trusting our feelings and believing in our own worthiness to receive this divine blessing. We feel absolutely boundless.

2. We are booking a flight by Thanksgiving for Tristan to visit during the upcoming holidays, the dates and times are perfect, and everything is arranged easily and effortlessly.

We are filled with love and gratitude, thrilled about this Miracle reunion that is taking place. We are joyful in the anticipation of his arrival, imagining the joy of the first loving embrace, big hugs, maybe some tears of joy and just in complete amazement of how tall he has grown and how handsome he is. Our family is blessed in togetherness again.

3. We are in total well-being, in total alignment with Source Energy, always finding the good in everything, allowing others to be just as they are. As we flow with life on this wondrous organic journey, creating deliberately, trusting our feelings, as we love, accept and appreciate ourselves in every present moment.

We are feeling that life is so effortless, so easy, and so incredibly fun. We feel grounded, healthy and whole no matter what is happening around us. We are feeling deep self-appreciation, gratitude and divinely blessed, as our friends, family and we are amazed at the perfect life we live. We feel absolutely boundless in all areas of our lives. All of this is an incredible experience of true freedom, in love with us and the fantastic journey we are on.

Louise-Marie L., Montreal, Quebec, Canada

Hi, thanks for caring so much for humanity. Love from Louise-Marie living in Montreal, Quebec, Canada

Here are the 3 manifestations I would like to see happened over the next month:

- I let go of the fears that restrain me from love, abundance, success and my divine self.

I wake up everyday with a smile, peace in my heart and my mind is still, fully aware of the present moment. I feel alive, filled with love and I inspire others to give themselves the ability to feel this way.

- I open myself to receive a beautiful inspiration to create a way to bring financial abundance into my life as a self-worker and this project is beneficial to others as well.

I now feel at ease and free from financial concerns and free from my employer. I feel energized and lifted by this new project. I feel joy in my heart because I know that this will help connecting and inspiring people to participate more actively in creating a better world. I feel I have made an important step into my life and this will change my life completely in a very positive way.

- I allow myself to have a joyful encounter with a man and we give us the opportunity to share our love and presence with each other and our eagerness to be better persons in order to better serve humanity.

I feel blessed and grateful for such a gift in my life. Together we make giant steps in our spiritual growth. My joy is apparent to everybody and I can feel it throughout every cell of my body. The woman I am is more beautiful and confident.

So be it....

Thank you again, just to know that you will read it I can feel it starting to materialize. Wow now imagine thousands of people!

Love,
Louise-Marie

1. I am enjoying watching my husband in his new career where he completes 2 short sales per month and earns a minimum of $5,000 per sale.

I am amazed and filled with gratitude for the divine blessing of this manifestation. My husband and his clients experience a mutually beneficial relationship. My husband is joyfully experiencing an excellent rate of pay, steady work and a schedule he loves. His clients are experiencing being in his caring hands and gratitude for his expertise and help with their financial situation. We are experiencing financial abundance with ease, freedom and well-being.

2. I am performing new, exciting duties at work where I utilize my current computer skills, organizational skills and thorough knowledge of office procedures while I also become proficient in new, stimulating areas, and I am extremely pleased at how rewarding these new duties make me feel and my confidence grows immensely.

I feel fulfilled and rewarded performing these new duties. I am happy to be making such a great contribution to the college. My boss, coworkers and I all experience a mutually beneficial relationship.

3. I am rebuilding, repairing, cleansing, healing and ascending my energy system so that it is running at 100% effectiveness and I am using my energetic gifts, skills and talents to help others clear their energy systems in the same manner.

I am grateful that I have the time and funds available to enroll in energy courses. I am appreciative that I have these gifts and that I can help myself, my family and others with these gifts. I am happy that my guides are extremely able and willing to help. I am experiencing an enormously positive difference in myself both physically and mentally. My physical body is running at 100% effectiveness and because of my energy transformation, my digestion is strong, all toxins leave my body quickly and through the appropriate channels, my skin is glowing and immaculate and my hair grows strong.

I am amazed and filled with gratitude for the divine blessing of these manifestations. This or something better now manifests in me in the next 30 days.

Angie M., Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.

Many thanks!!

My knees healed and they are strong. My bladder infections disappeared. I have no pain. I am able to run and walk freely without pain or restraint and my body is as light as a small white feather. 1) My daughter and I are feeling great living in a private, ecologically built, safe, healthy living home with solar and wind power that supplies all needed electricity - off the grid, which is built on a VERY large parcel of at least 72 acres, of pure chemical free land with extremely clean air and available drinking water supply, and is built with only healthy materials which are FREE of toxins, and which is also only a 30 minute drive or less to organic health food store and a wonderful alternative MD.

Zoe and I feel so much healthier living in this clean, safe environment. We enjoy walking outdoors every day. We also now feel well enough to do our artwork, and write, and spend time playing together. Life is so much simpler and easier now. We are amazingly grateful!

2) My daughter and I are receiving all the resources necessary to live a happy, safe and fulfilled life overflowing with abundance, including a beautiful private home, a satiety of organic food, pure supplements and vitamins, healthy water, organic clothing, safe art supplies, and all requirements and desires, and bills easily paid completely.

Zoe and I are experiencing a peaceful, graceful existence. We feel so blessed and filled with grace and gratitude to be able to spend 95% of our time, learning about things which interest us, doing artwork and making dolls, reading, gardening and walking in nature, writing stories, articles, screenplays, and novels, watching dvd movies, using computers and computer programs constructively and/or for fun, meditating, gently exercising, cooking, speaking to people we love, getting healthy wonderful sleep, playing, and working on projects we enjoy which will also help humanity in some way.

3) My daughter and I are experiencing comfort, ease, and vibrant health in our bodies as we gain more and more strength, stamina, mental agility and acuity, perfect breathing, peacefulness, and effortless joyful remembering every day.

Zoe and I are exhilarated and thankful as we are able to walk farther, do more gentle exercise, and accomplish more of our artistic, spiritual, and societal goals in comfort, ease, and peace.

Thanks so much,
Susan M

Flesymi, aka Joseph G., San Francisco, California, US.

I AM actively engaged with the Zipidy iPark pilot program with $1 million in funding, great partners, cooperative municipal agents, thousands of users and more municipalities in California and Europe vying for our business. It is very rewarding to have everything falling into place on schedule, interim activities and product development on target and customers very happy. This success paves the way for the Global Coherence Feedback System to be exposed to the proper officials and philanthropic funding agents in San Francisco, Oakland and Los Angeles.

I AM graciously accepting invitations for public speaking engagements to discuss how collective human intention and technology can be combined to create social harmony. I am supported by like-spirited individuals to help fund and launch the Global Coherence Feedback System in a divinely timely way.

I AM in such material abundance that I am so happy to be giving Allen G. and NM checks for $11,000 each. I revel in the creator's abundance that allows me to enjoy the richness of my god-self and lavish my world with beautiful gifts, special events and a growing nest egg. The A-Ray begins flowing in a BIG way...fully fulfilled to the tune of millions of dollars to hundreds of light warriors by December 3rd, 2006. Thank you Mother-Father God, the time is right for the Universal Principle of Abundance to become manifest, beginning with those most in line with it, and then spreading like wildfire to every living thing on Mother Earth.
