Personal Manifestation Guides for Infinity members for October 14, 2006

Please see email announcement for TeleConcordance details to call in and join us on the phone at the appointed times.

In preparation for the Concordance on October 14th please read each of these personal visions, connect in mind and spirit with the individual and her or his respective life, and see/feel the following as present realities. Remember, we are already connected, so there is no struggle in making this already-present connection obvious to our conscious awareness. It is already there...feel it!

The first time you read these, just allow yourself to be inspired by the life of someone you know but may not remember. Without judgment, openly and lovingly accept these as the person's heart desire. Then re-read knowing that on Saturday at the appointed times we will be collectively manifesting these things for each individual. Here, in a very real sense, you are traveling to the future to enact our collective manifestations. See/feel these visions becoming manifest as a result of our shared visioning for each other on Saturday. Feel deep fulfillment and satisfaction in yourself for having been such a valuable facilitator (co-creator) in someone else's life. Also feel empathically fulfilled, content and appreciative, as if you could fit yourself inside the others' feelings, knowing that these desires and visions are manifesting this very moment.

When you come across your own Personal Manifestation Guide, smile at it knowing that the amplifying power of the group is co-creating it for you. You've already set your intention; there is nothing to do now but allow it to manifest. Release it to this powerful group of co-creating Infinity members and know. As I mention in the Inevitability of Abundance article (http://www.infinityaffinity.org/inevitability\_of\_abundance.htm):

“Faith is the absence of disbelief”

If you don't disbelieve in the power of our co-creative capacities, what we desire to manifest will be so. Your past disbelief was your own nemesis. Your only task now is to allow the joyous action that will inspire you on a moment-by-moment basis as your manifestations unfold gracefully. As they do, please report back to me so that I may share them with the group.

On Saturday we will go over each Personal Manifestation Guide in the privacy of our own hearts and minds, and these now familiar personal manifestations will be launched into the Cosmic field for immediate manifestation. The Saturday Concordance will be both closed-eye and open-eye so that we may look upon the Personal Manifestation Guides below to give them added life. It will be best to join our TeleConcordance on the phone, but if you cannot call the number from wherever you are, no worries. Just tune in to the Vibe we are creating to orchestrate these manifestations.

As the days and weeks and months go by after this Concordance, someone may come to mind that you have helped manifest their vision. Allow the image or vision to float freely in you, giving thanks and appreciation for the abundance and fulfillment we enjoy in our connection.

I am honored to be party to such powerful group manifestors/co-creators at this time.

All my best,
Joseph R. Giove, aka Flesymi

PS. I am including the brief notes to me (and locales if I have them) that some people wrote as this gives additional details of the people you are manifesting for.

PPS. Be sure to register online for the Group Holographic Repatterning Session offered at no charge thanks to Elizabeth Tobin: <http://www.megahrgroups.com/events/PMG06.html>. If this page is not up, just check back in a couple hours.

Annette E., Munich, Germany

I am the master of my life.

Everybody of my family and I have everything we need in our life (abundance, love, peace, security, adventure, joy, perfect health, spontaneity, creativity and so on) and we are very grateful for that.

The relationship to my husband Chris improve in the way that he is now interested in what I am doing and is willing to transform himself as well, I am his example. We have a very loving, happy, exciting, close, open-minded relationship.

My twin boys Vincent and Leroy (2 3/4 years) learning very fast what I teach them and they are little masters of their life already.

We all have a very loving and close relationship to one another.

I have enough time to do whatever I desire to do, especially for my hobbies. My life is exciting and full of miracles.

I am financial independent and have never to worry about money again.
That makes me feel save.

We own a blue Nissan Navara, which bring us safe wherever we like to travel.

I am improving my spirituality daily.
I am developing strong psychic powers.
I understand and master the universal laws easily.

I am able to manifest whatever I wish within 1 day and I feel the power I possess. That makes me feel happy.
In end of next year (2007) my mind is borderless and so I am.
I am able to do whatever I wish to do, but I don't make it public.

I attract interested people to me from every country of the world whom I am teaching how to become the master of their life as well. Everybody I was and I am ever in contact with will never forget my personal magnetism and sooner or later they desire to change their life circumstances. Sending out powerful messages by mail and email will encourage them.

I love to help others, it satisfy me to improve the life of others.

Everyday I get some loving postal letters from my thankful international friends and invitations to visit them.
Of course we travel often and we always meet new people I can show the right way to make our world a better place. That gives me a deep satisfaction and gratitude.

I am able to learn perfectly any language within 1 month and I am very thankful for that.

Everyday I have new money making ideas and realize them.
Everyday I get money on my account or by mail. We have so many money for ourselves that I have to surprise my family, friends and strangers with gifts everyday. It makes me very glad to see happy people.

In beginning of next year we are living harmonically in a wonderful big house near Munich. It is a 3 floor house and has 2 garages and a big garden. There are 10 rooms in the house plus bathroom, a large kitchen and several balconies.
Middle of next year we own another house, it is in the Caribbean and looks like a little castle. It have about 20 rooms, so we can invite some friends. Both of the houses are individually designed following the feng shui principles for an abundant life and everything is awesome furnished.

All houses have a big garden and a caring gardener who plants all kind of fruits and vegetables for us.
All the houses have everything we ever need and friendly people all around sharing the abundance.

I have a big happy community (my international friends) all around the world and daily comes "new members" to join us.

This community follows the "Be it Now! Vision".

Ingrid M.

OK. A manifestation list. Here goes:

A speedy return to perfect health for my entire being, especially on the physical level.

An unstinting and abundant flow of financial prosperity to easily take care of all material issues: pay off all debts; afford my own lovely home; etc.

The perfect job in the world for me: utilizes my talents and abilities in wonderful, productive, creative ways. Loving, supportive atmosphere. Wonderful, abundant remuneration on all levels.

Generous and loving support from every quarter of my service, so that there is empowerment and opportunity to do even more, in yet more profound, larger and more wonderful ways, to be able to really make a difference in the world.

A deeper, more sustaining, more loving connection to the Divine throughout every cell of my being and my consciousness.

A more powerful, balanced, wise, loving ability to lead and to teach exactly what needs to be taught for the growth of all.

Thank You,
Ingrid

Tom T., Florida, US.

Very much appreciate this Native American ceremony.

As group leader for the Fallschase Preservation Advocacy Group, I would like to present the following intention.

May the beautiful Fallschase green space and nature preserve be completely free from development, especially the Wal-Mart that has been planned.

May we be successful in terminating this destructive commercial project for the sake of the trees, the creepers and critters, the flora and fauna, the plethora of birds and other animals, as well as all the other living creatures who have the right to inhabit the beautiful Fallschase area.

May the elementals and nature spirits inspire us to successfully thwart any and all schemes that are conceived to destroy this vital and irreplaceable green space.

May the entire "Buck Lake Region" be forever free from Wal-Marts and all other unnecessary blight in the community.

OM Shanti Shanti Shanti

With Much Gratitude,
Tom T

Melinda S.

I am healthy, I am whole, I am spirit in human form.

I am living a life of financial abundance. Money flows easily and effortlessly to my family so that we can live a comfortable life. My husband and I use our enormous array of talents, gifts, skills and intelligence to make money effortlessly. My husband enjoys his new career immensely and his work allows people to have a better life and for that he and his clients are always grateful. With the great abundance coming into our lives, we are able to invest and save for the future. All of our investments are very fruitful.

I am living in my lovely, beautiful, current home, which is warm in the winter and cool in the summer and is always inviting and comfortable. My home is well built and everything in and around it is sturdy and runs exceptionally well. The mortgage is paid off on my home by the end of 2007. My water is clean and pure.

I am living my life's passion, which is running my own healing energy practice out of my home. I am helping people and they are thankful for my work and I am making a positive difference in my client's lives. I am making money doing what I love to do. My energy system is exceedingly strong and I can work on people with absolutely no harm to myself. I am teaching people about ayurveda, cleanses, karma, past lives and the energy system. My clients are healing and are happy because of my work. I am happy. I am confident in my abilities.

I am happy to see that my child no longer needs an individualized educational plan at school. He is intelligent, confident, happy, healthy and is a bright shining star. He can focus easily. He brings love wherever he goes and makes lots of friends. He makes a best friend this year in school.

I am in love with my husband. We have a very fulfilling sex life. My body responds instantly to my husband's warm and loving touch.

I am able to hear my guides clearly. I am able to travel to other dimensions safely. I am able to channel messages from guides who are for our highest purpose and greatest expansion.

I am confident.

I am beautiful.

I am happy.

Dear Flesymi,
(Will you really be able to read all these messages?)

[Flesymi: YES!]

Your call for our personal desires to be helped manifesting by all our meditation community is, in itself, my first wish manifested!! I slot in a heart-felt thank you for all your efforts now, which I so often feel but never dare express!!

My list would have been utterly different 3 weeks ago but since then my country (Hungary) has seen the most shocking events rapidly escalating into violent demonstrations, civil war atmosphere, and hatred infiltrating our collective subconscious (and conscious thinking) to never-seen degrees!

So my only desire now for Hungary to regain peace, calm and normality and for myself to be able to do something for it actively because at the moment I am engulfed by fear and like this I am only adding to our troubles but feel unable to break through!

I'll be very grateful if you can include this.

I wish I could be nearer to you I struggle with feelings of powerlessness meditating on my own!!

Love and light!

Hi Flesymi,

Here are my personal manifestations:

I see harmony between myself and Anne, both of us feeling free to express ourselves as we feel we are.

We feel alot of love in our hearts for each other.----From now on and growing stronger.

I see all my financial needs, and those of my family being met without me having to worry about them.--- From now on.

I see a home in Devon taken care of by Anne---2007----a grounded feeling.

I see myself with land in the Pyrenees taken care of by me---2007--- a desire to build and farm renewed.

I see ourselves as a family being able to live in both places---by 2008---a cohesive feeling of togetherness.

I see the land in the Pyrenees as an oasis for other like minded people---2009---joy and relief that the land is being used and respected.

I see Robert, Tegwyn and their family enjoying sharing this space---2007---joy at this manifestation---2008---growing stronger, plans emerging.

I see my heart filled with love as I am able to share joy with more and more of my earthly family.

I see Jarita and Chenoa happy in themselves and creating their lives with the beauty that they are.

I see myself amplifying the power of manifestation in my life---satisfaction and relief.

I see more and more spiritual bonding in my life and throughout the planet.

I see myself supporting my Red Path family by doing Sundance in Mexico---2008.

I could write more but for me I have laid down a foundation of manifestation to dance forward from.

Thank you
In love and peace
Om Namah Shivaya
Clive I.

Shirley E.

Hi Flesymi,

I would like to be included in this Manifestation request. I hope this is right why to ask this I am not good at writing, I would like the following aspects: Abundance in all areas of my life; Perfect health for my Husband and myself; financial security; Peace for Mother Earth; I hope to have these things in a few years, but I will be happy with what ever does happen with these requests.

[Flesymi: Please give us more details...]

Thanks for the positive feedback. If the aspects I mentioned or fully/partial fulfilled, I will have the health to do more good work for Mother Earth and Frank will have the energy to become active in things he use to love to do like bike riding, walking with out pain, lose the weight that has on him on, since he can't be active like he use to, Financial security would be enough money to pay our bills and keep a roof over our head, and a little over to enjoy living. He needs to lose about 200 lbs, he has been trying but it just don't seem to want to come off. Also if we had enough money will could own a home of our own, just a one level home with a garden and peaceful area to live in. The amount would be probably $100,000 maybe I really don't know the amount we would need. If we were able to live comfortably and I would not have to work, I could do more work to help Mother Earth and others in need of help. If I could be rid of the diabetics Type II that I have, I would have more energy do things I use to like. What ever abundance that comes our way will be greatly appreciated and will use wisely.

Shirley E.

Oh, thank you Father, Mother God! The blessings you have brought me and continue to shower me with have lifted me up to full Enlightenment , Completion and Ascension. I love the way you know what is needed, even before I seem to. I AM dancing on air, as I enjoy my new career, wonder-filled relationships, and pure and complete health. I am excited, as I AM fulfilling my true purpose in this lifetime, now. I am connected, in community, helping to heal mother earth and living Heaven on Earth. My income continues to double every month (since in Nov 2006) and is all sufficient.

I now feel connected with All that there is and I AM So grateful! Thank you, thank you, thank you.

Hannah W., England UK

Hi Joseph

Here is my personal manifestation guide, sorry, it is late - self has had a belly full of deadlines

Also, some of the stuff is not 'personal' but I can't leave them out – universal. Of this, some is, some is practice some is becoming and some yet to become

So...

I seek to live that which fuels my intention – whatever is happening, for there is only this to do.
I am presently recreating parts of my world

OK ... you have to know a little about what I do and why. I create inflatable sculpture which goes to indoor and out door events all over the UK/world, dry hire or with a crew. And long may this continue.....

The inspiration is to take them to parties and festivals, beautiful magical places and dance under the stars-literally and the moon, amongst other worldly plants animals and beings People need to do this and the earth needs people to dance on her

There is the deeper purpose is to participate in the global trance-formation all together.....this is the mission; this is what makes it fun. The practical side to this is a hire business which gets these pieces out and about to other venues through out the year and provides income. I have been making these things for about 10 years now so have had plenty of practice

If you have a moment check out www.tribeoffrog.co.uk/gallery Glade album and then slide show. See also attached pics, the red flowers are in Japan right now!

I see this opportunity as part of the process; have been asking the universe for a booster! So..... wish list at this time, and a time line which is more specific.
700 words? That would take another day!

Wish List/Mission statement

To continue always.....
To do what I love and love what I do
To be happy and strong - insulated from destructive forces –for self and those in my care
To make good energy choices/decisions and sound foundations
A clear path
World Peace (Imagine-lennon)
Plenty of energy/funds/resonant people to take care of things, activate/click with – new energy and opportunities
Good people to build share and hold with
The bestest boyfriend
Lovely creative business to live happily by
Get all the rest, relaxation and support I need
May my home be a cosy sanctuary
Follow my muse –stay free and inspired
Travel to/around and revisit some places such as Europe, spain, samothraki, India, Americas, just for starters with or without inflatables
Stay free and inspired
Always have time and space to grow myself – me time ( TRT EFT writing, gardening, energies as in earth, crystal, meridians +)
Plenty of sun and moon shine
Live this now in its own good time
Synchronize inner and outer realities – balance -

Time Line

This generates actual physical/material specific tasks/current projects working on now.

0-6 months

Collect up website images, set up good alternative income – so there will always be plenty of funds to lubricate the wheels of life. Aim - always have some baseline income independent of the business which enables to build a reserve.
stop tobacco. Get passport. Digital cam/vid
Install new boiler, clear attic, put batton on rafters
Making new inflatables for the summer and beyond

6-12months

detox
Give business visible presence online. Re launching with name.
The hot water, attic are done, insulated and rewired making it fully functional, paint the hall, put a new roof on shed

1-2 yrs

Continue expanding inflatable hire business. it needs close by premises suitable for storage and production that is affordable – will share with other art/types who fit. I will easily make a fabulous hire stock (got a list) which will provide at least two part time jobs, expanding to a flexible full time. Some expertise and hands will need to be hired in as needed ..... le production assistants/sewer, riggers, techi's, business heads, a dam good solicitor. Like minded people who can help Ok, this business can be managed from anywhere in the world via laptop once people are in place. Live in vehicle – get on the road or get on a plane - have some fun -

There are solar panels on the back roof now. The interior of the house is freed up to be decorated, central heating, doors and frames ect, furniture's as I have envisioned

2-4 yrs

Pay off any debts and mortgage left – freed up financially - yippee

Everything is shipshape and running sweet and established.....

Time to sort remaining house Target remaining house projects – bathroom, kitchen

Beyond

Get house with land and outbuildings, use for workshops and alternative living styles, over the years create an economic sustainable living modal – own water supply

Feel.....

supported
gratitude
alive
empowered connected yippee

Good luck getting it all together; it will be interesting to see what you come up with. How many people are in this group?

Many thanks
Hannah

Peggy P., Earth City, MO., US.

I am grateful for a trim, fit, ultimately healthy body, which feels vibrant, energetic, flexible and life-affirming, on a daily basis. The ultimate health and vibrancy of my body is apparent in, and supported by, all of my choices.

I am grateful that my Twin Flame/Life Partner is in a healthy daily relationship with me, that joins our hearts. This relationship is present to me, now, manifests with ease and grace, and allows both of us peace and continuing spiritual growth, as our caring and commitment to each other deepens each 3rd dimensional day. This relationship is joy, peace, contentment, and intimacy on all levels. My Twin Flame/Life Partner mirrors my quest for peace, personal growth, and joy in life, and we focus on supporting each other's freedom and growth in our commitment to each other.

I am grateful that I have abundant monetary wealth, now, and extensive abundance in all facets of my life. Monetary wealth, now, facilitates my inner peace, and my enjoyment of life; abundance in all facets of my life is apparent immediately, bringing deep inner peace.

I am grateful that the awareness of our connection to each other is now in the consciousness of all incarnated souls. This awareness allows all to relate to all, recognizing with our hearts, the spirit within each body we meet, consider, and contact, on any level and by any means. This awareness and ability to relate on a spirit level is the source of peace and harmony in the universe.

Carolyn, Fallbrook, Earth ☺

Thank you for including me.

Carolyn's Personal Manifestation Guide

I, Carolyn, AM a multimillionaire. Today I live in a beautiful home, fully remodeled, on my fully-landscaped 7 acres in Fallbrook. Someday I may move to another equally lovely home that I will love just as much. I enjoy entertaining and loving my lover Michael and my friends and family. I rejoice in the beauty of each day in perfect harmony and health. I love manifesting my income in many interesting ways, so that each day brings more wealth in seemingly effortless ways.

I share my wealth with family, friends, and community, thereby enriching all around me. I create jobs for many people as I perfect my own environment. I give freely to businesses helping our environment. I provide health insurance and good educations for those I employ.

I teach others how to manifest their perfect existence.

I live in a safe, peaceful world where everyone thinks of others' needs before their own and everyone walks softly on our Mother Earth. In this world all humans exist peacefully, respecting the beliefs of others and thinking of the common welfare as a part of each decision, law, or action they take. There is no war within, therefore, there is no war between individuals, ideologies, or nations.

My first million dollars will manifest effortlessly by the end of 2007 as a joint effort between my partner Michael and myself in real estate, as authors and speakers, and through sales endeavors of The 75/25 Diet, and through other avenues that we create as we go. The next year, 2008, brings more millions of dollars. Other ventures will follow as our interests grow and change throughout our long and healthy lives, each venture earning more wealth and abundance each year, bringing more millions of dollars yearly.

Although I have interesting ways of earning income to keep me active and busy with life 2 or 3 hours each workday, I have more than enough leisure time to spend resting, traveling, cooking, shopping, visiting, enjoying friends, meeting new people, staying close with my family, meditating, learning, expanding spiritual awareness, gardening, exercising, writing, and enjoying new things that keep life interesting.

Gary and Judy C.

This day it will be given me to feel a touch of Heaven and walk into eternity a while. This I will learn to do increasingly, as every lesson, faithfully rehearsed, brings me more swiftly to this holy place and leaves me, for a moment, to my Self. Into His Presence would I enter now. And having joined my will with His this day, what I am asking must be given me. This idea will light my mind, and let it rest in still anticipation and in quiet joy, wherein I quickly leave the world behind. From this day forth, my ministry takes on a genuine devotion, and a glow that travels from my fingertips to those I touch, and blesses those I look upon. A vision reaches everyone I meet, and everyone I think of, or who thinks of me. My experience today will so transform my mind that it becomes the touchstone for the holy Thoughts of God. My body will be sanctified today, its only purpose being now to bring the vision of what I experience this day to light the world. We cannot give experience like this directly. Yet it leaves a vision in our eyes which we can offer everyone, that he may come the sooner to the same experience in which the world is quietly forgot, and Heaven is remember for a while. As this experience increases and all goals but this become of little worth; the world to which I will return becomes a little closer to the end of time, a little more like heaven in its ways; a little nearer its deliverance. And we who bring it light will come to see the light more sure; the vision more distinct.

I want to manifest this: Into His Presence would I enter now, serenely unaware of everything except His shining face and perfect Love. The vision of His face will stay with me, but there will be an instant which transcends all vision, even this, the holiest.

Today we will embark upon a course we have not dreamed of. But the Giver of the happy dreams of life, Translator of perception into truth, the holy Guide to Heaven given us, has dreamed for us this journey which we make and start today, with the experience this day holds out to be our own.

Let the forgiveness and healing begin. And so it is.
Gary and Judy C.

Melvin L., Beecher, IL, US.

My continuing goal is to walk in balance and gratitude as a joyful, loving, respectful, understanding, passionate and above all forgiving person meaningfully employed in positions that I enjoy and grow from which draw upon my talents and lead to abundant life path success in service to mankind. My long term goals are the fulfillment of my life purpose including the founding and key contributions to the Holistically Optimistic Process of Education (HOPE) School which I have envisioned in concert with a dedicated staff and willing student body.

Thank you for doing this Joseph. It is a great idea filled with empowerment.

Bless you for your service to mankind. We all benefit.

Mel T.

Sabine

Dear Flesymi,

First, may I express my deepest gratitude. Oddly I feel as if I existed in two realms, and as such had great difficulties to bring balance. How exiting that we accelerate towards a state of harmony of true being, how profoundly beautiful, how magnificent is the music of our collective vibrations.

Manifestation for the collective comes easy for me, but expressing manifestation for myself was a challenge, but here it comes:

I see my project has all the backing and elements in place, and we are now co-creating that, which brings joy to many, that is who I am.

I see an investor group providing the funds now, therewith my personal financial needs are also met.

I am elated that the final piece needed to bring this project to fruition is in place, and I can assemble the best collaborative creative effort, and awaken the goodwill of all those touched by it, and inspire many more with the completed project.

I am free from the financial nightmare, and it brings me joy that I can provide stability for my family, I am happy to be able to meet their reasonable wants and needs.

I see recompense in justice honored, which is balance, which is peace.

The exploitation of the vulnerable is exposed, and I see my case close with restitution of the home which was taken, and invoke changes so others are spared.

My ex-husband, is finally facing his responsibilities, he can no longer hide, and judgments are enforced and paid in full. I am so happy for my daughter and my mother, whose trust in fairness is now restored, and I am delighted that I persevered. After all these years, closure to this issue brought peace to all of us. I am now free of any and all legal entanglements.

I am abundance, therewith I freely create from my vibrations of my core to contribute that which I am

I am harmony that is bliss.

In gratitude of being part of the cosmic grand orchestra

Rosemarie J.

Dear Joseph,

My personal manifestation intent is for total healing of my body, emotions and clarity in my heart and mind. I want to manifest healing and resolution of my relationship with my husband. World peace and healing of planet earth is my greatest passionate intent. Financial abundance is also high on my list as I plan an overseas trip to attend my nieces wedding in Germany. I will be happy to join your circle of manifesting intentions.

Thank you and blessings on your work, Rosemarie J.

[Flesymi: How will this feel?]

It will feel totally wonderful and I will be radiantly happy. As far as my financial abundance is concerned, $ 100 000 would enable me to be debt free, have the best hearing aid money can buy, take trips to Alaska and to Hawaii along with the already mentioned trip to my homeland in Germany. Blessings, peace, joy and thanks for imitating this project, Rosemarie J.

I want to have nice neighbors within 10 days that are kind, caring and non-negative, and I will feel protected, peaceful and have the joy of a quiet home. Thank you for my chance to make my dreams come true.

Jane S.

In my current job, I am given a raise to $75 per hour, and an extension of my current contract, all easily approved and in place by Thanksgiving of this year. I am amazed and filled with gratitude for the divine blessing of this manifestation.

I acquire several new prosperous-minded clients over the course of the next few months, who want and need exactly what I love to offer in my practice. We experience a mutually beneficial relationship and connect at a heart level.

I am joyfully experiencing an excellent rate of pay, steady work, and a schedule I love. My relationships with clients, co-workers and managers are satisfying, enjoyable and productive. I am experiencing financial abundance with a sense of ease, freedom and well-being.

I am living in a new home within the next one year from now. It is the beautiful, peaceful, nurturing environment of which I've always dreamed. It is clean, safe, quiet, spacious, with natural light and a view of trees from the windows. It has excellent feng shui and design, easy maintenance, high quality natural furnishings and supports and inspires me to cook, enjoy baths, sleep restoratively, delight my guests, and practice meditation and yoga. It is affordable, with easy access to my work and activities, and is situated within a community of respectful, friendly neighbors. I am nurtured and energized by, and deeply grateful for, my new home.

Within the next one year from now I am united with a partner who is my true soul mate. We understand one another profoundly and are in sync with each others most precious ideals, dreams and perspectives. We relate as interdependent whole beings who are devoted to one another and lovingly support each other in being our highest selves. We consistently and consciously choose to treat each other with adoration, respect, kindness, generosity, joy, playfulness, love, and affection. We are completely fulfilled, desired and blissful in sacred sexual union. We are a family.

Over the next eight months, mainly through the vehicle of my teacher training, I am experiencing a personal transformation. I am aligned with my authentic nature, I release old coping patterns, and I experience a sense of deep peace in my heart. I detoxify and experience increased vitality, confidence, and clarity of purpose. I am completely restored to perfect health, especially in my heart, lungs, and breast areas. As I open my heart more I experience a sense of belonging, community and trust; my current relationships are more meaningful and I effortlessly and naturally make new like-minded friends. I am fully supported by the universe. I am safe, I am loved, I flow freely with divine guidance. I am vibrantly healthy, strong, flexible, supple, graceful, integrated, spontaneous, radiant, beautiful and sexy. I acquire the clothing and accessories that are a true outward extension of my unique creative being, that I love wearing and that inspire me to BE my authentic self. I share my love and light with all and I experience life as wonderful and magical.

I am all of this. I am here to be great and to serve. And so it is.

Subject: my personal manifestation guide

Relationship - I am in sync with my husband. I speak to him kindly and uplift him. I receive kind and uplifting words in return. I have friendly and warm relationships with my husband, children, grandchildren, and extended family. This happens beginning from today. It feels so much warmer with this happening.

Financial - We have ample of money to do what I desire with plenty left over. Both of our businesses make a profit of at least $5000 this year and more in the future. We sell 129 Tobiano in October at asking price easily in a clean deal. Our income stays at as it was at the beginning of 2006 or more per year. We can easily afford our home and its utilities with plenty left over to use for our entertainment and joy. I feel much more relaxed knowing we have enough income to maintain our current standard of living, and we are not overspending.

Living circumstances - Our living circumstances continue to be filled with abundance as we have now. We stay in this beautiful home and enjoy what our city has to offer in the way of entertainment and pleasure. We are able to travel when we want to and are healthy and happy. My husband's horse lives a long time - at least another 10 years - and he enjoys riding him. We live in this home for the next 20 years or more because the location is so good and we feel peaceful having the view of the mountains and trees.

Spiritual - I tune into my own intuitions even more, hear the universe speaking to me, and listen to its directions. This increases every day and I feel joy knowing I have made choices that are right for me.

Life passion - I realize my dream of having full workshops, and a waiting list, and have many clients for Past Life Regression, Hypnosis and Astrology, and I am proud of the work I do. I get involved in the community with volunteer work. My husband gets more comfortable with his horse and is comfortable with the reliability of his invention. We both feel good contributing to society.

Social - we have friends over, and are invited to their homes for evenings of good conversation and welcome friendship. We feel wanted and surrounded by loving companionship and a support system. This starts in October 2006.

I am ready to make a change. To be guided by my higher-level consciousness and faith in the existential system, the one that is sometimes represented by gods and saints and hope and faith. I trust in the kindness of the human spirit and believe that things happen exactly as they should.

I trust in my abilities, my skills and talents, my intuition, determination, strength and diligence. I forgive myself for subscribing to a system that does not support my values, and I forgive those who have contributed to the formation and continuation of that system.

Debra R., Los Angeles, California, U.S.

Dear Joseph -

I've just written then, guided by Spirit, toward fulfilling what I know I came here to do. I am ready to proceed.

Peace and love and all happiness to you and yours.

With gratitude,

Debra

I come in humility and power to create all good for myself, my loved ones, this planet and her peoples, and the cosmos at large. To date, I have made many mistakes and have stumbled occasionally in darkness. I now aim to manifest Light, Love and Highest Consciousness in my every thought, word, and deed.

I now attract the resources and help to move with ease and grace, to settle into my own home – a place of beauty, safety, privacy, peace and comfort from which I can work as well as live in total joy, and where my family and friends can visit when our choices for this and our schedules permit, sharing love, welcome, harmony, great food and drink. This home is truly a gift and features all the things I want as well as some surprises. It is located not too far from the sea and is an easy drive to my usual centers of activity for work and recreation, and friendships and worship. God knows where it is and I hope to be guided to it and moved in by November 1st, 2006.

I continue to attract the highest and best people in the film industry who delight in assisting me in all aspects toward my goal of producing films of my choice, written by CJ, JJ, GC and whatever other great writers I am led to. I aim to make at least two excellent and lucrative films annually, with ease, supported by a team of filmmakers who are kind, extremely talented, loving, and cooperative; people who share my higher vision and who also want to live and work stress-free toward helping this planet evolve into a world of joy and happiness for ALL PEOPLE. Harmonious work environments, and easy and constant cash flow to create each film, living well and joyously – these accompany each project with clear help through Divine Guidance and Intervention, and each person lives and works with joy and focus, using their gifts and giving thanks often that we get to create and prosper from such important works that will touch the hearts and souls of masses of people everywhere. All of this happens painlessly, prosperously, in the Now, in total perfect Light, and even though sometimes it is busy, it is strain-free, injury-free, conflict-free and blessed in all ways, always. This work is one means for me to support myself on this earth plane while in form, and I welcome the income that will not only help me, but will help me to help others, and them to help others as well, continuously.

I am also able to travel to the places I will be filming in the coming years, so that I always have time to remain for leisure and exploration and fun, worry free, with plenty of funds, toward appreciating and celebrating life and the cultures and people I am drawn to, such as in Ireland, Scotland, Greece, Argentina, Australia and anywhere else I want to be. These travels are always safe and easy, with every comfort, aligned with God's will.

There is also always plenty of time for me to keep up my journals, and to write a story or two when I feel like it, or to take photographs and meander through ancient cities, medieval villages, seaside vistas that bring me great calm and connection with God.

I now also manifest beauty and youthfulness, total health, grace and peace in my physical form while also maintaining a steady energy stream to complete my tasks of choice, with clear vision as well as perfect eyesight, with clear speech as well as perfect teeth, with clear lungs as well as perfect breath, with clear listening as well as perfect hearing, with clear steps as well as perfect stature, my every step taken in love and confidence built upon trusting the Holy Spirit Within to direct my course.

All the while, for the remainder of my life, I maintain happy, healthy, loving, beautiful relationships with my children, grandchildren, my birth family, with friends old and new, while also meeting very soon my ideally matched life mate with whom I can spend love-centered, soulful, rich, balanced, intelligent, nonjudgmental, spiritual, harmonious, satisfying, drama-free, truly happy times whether at work, play, or in our intimate life founded on the joining of soul, heart, body and mind, honoring fully the other, seeing clearly and appreciating the blessing it is to have come together. This person is seeking me now and we love greatly - ourselves, each other, and the world at large. Venice, Italy – here we come!

Blessings to one and all, and may Peace prevail Everywhere, Eternally.

It is time for a New World.

Love,

Debra

Tracy B. Pacific Northwest, U.S.

Joseph,

I would like to participate. The wonderful thing for me is this is all taking place on my Birthday.

Personal Manifestation Guide for Tracy
Have the best birthday ever.

The time line for all below intentions is NOW. The feeling for all of this being manifested is indescribably delicious, and joyous. I am high. I am so open from so much appreciation and gratitude. I am blessed.

Relationships: loving, fun and fulfilling.

Difficult relationships: manifest a feeling of peacefulness within that allows each individual, unconditionally, to follow their own path, despite appearances.

Relationship Closure: financially and emotionally. I envision handing Helen a check for the full amount owed, bid her farewell, blessing her journey.

Family relationship: My stepson contacting his father and scheduling/booking a flight to visit.

Time line: ASAP, A feeling of incredible relief, freedom, safety and joy.

Health

Manifest a complete healing of my gums and bone tissue prior to my next dental appointment Nov. 9. I envision the Dental Hygienist peering into my mouth, speechless because he cannot explain what happened, complete regeneration of gum tissue and bones. It feels almost like saying with a big smile on my face "I told you so", "incurable means curable within".

My body grows stronger, more flexible and adaptable everyday, capable of doing full yoga poses. My lungs continue adapting and healing themselves on a daily basis. Manifest periods that are comfortable, and regular. I would love this to be immediate. When all this manifests I will feel like I can walk on water. I will feel like a living witness to the intelligence of the body cells and the Universe co-creating together. Yahoo!

Living Circumstances- A new home. I would love to have all that I have now, beauty, privacy, seclusion, safety, acreage, amenities that make life comfortable, but better. The movers pack and move us into a energy efficient,(easy to heat and cool)luxurious home with heated floors, in a broad minded eclectic/artists community where we meet friends of like vibration, fabulous property manager and owner. An owner that loves and maintains the property, financially abundant, always initiates normal maintenance and improvements, respects our privacy and appreciates us.

Prop. Manager also aims to please, take responsibility, respects and appreciates our presence.

Time line - the sooner the better. It will feel fantastic, a burden lifted, to have moved on to something better. I will be thrilled to be packed and moved by movers for the very first time. "Rock and roll" is the feeling.

In one years time, purchase a south facing 100-1000 acre parcel of land in the Pacific Northwest, temperate climate 45-85 degrees, 30 minute drive to the ocean. The property is all that we enjoyed before, and we own it. A custom green home designed by C. Henritz, have separate Guest accommodations, pastures, waterfalls, all year around streams/river, ponds or lake, fruit trees, native orchids, native forest, wild life abound, abundant drinking water source, springs (hot or cold), house at least two miles away from a main road, and so far from civilization we hear only the sounds of nature and have Milky Way nights, horses, trails, good roads, studio, green house, workshop, large dog kennel, high-speed internet, detached triple car garage, off the grid, gorgeous views. This will be fun beyond fun, exhilarating, like riding through the skies on a magic dragon's back.

Spiritually: Experience the "sacred heart space" as described by Drunvalo. I would like to return to a meditational space where I experienced a dream like scenario, which I saw and spoke with my higherSelf.

Timeline: NOW. Feeling: as my higherSelf explained, "In this place nothing matters" and it feels so good.

Financially: I would like to win a large financial prize. I would feel giddy. I intend to manifest an extremely large financial flow by the end of the year that allows my partner and I the life-style of multimillionaire philanthropists, offering world service through our current nonprofit, and allows spontaneous world travel. The time line is NOW! The feeling is joyously, deliciously indescribable. I am so open from so much appreciation and gratitude. I am blessed.
